INTERNATIONAL UNION FOR THE PROTECTION OF NEW VARIETIES OF PLANTS

Geneva

COUNCILForty-Sixth Ordinary Session
Geneva, November 1, 2012*EXAMINATION OF THE CONFORMITY
OF THE PLANT BREEDERS' RIGHTS BILL OF THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA
WITH THE 1991 ACT OF THE UPOV CONVENTIONDocument prepared by the Office of the Union*

1. By letter dated October 1, 2012, addressed to the Secretary-General of UPOV, the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture Food Security and Cooperatives, of the United Republic of Tanzania, requested the examination of the Plant Breeders' Bill which was read for the first time in the Parliament in April 2012 (hereinafter referred to as the "Draft Law"), for conformity with the 1991 Act of the UPOV Convention (hereinafter referred to as the "1991 Act"). The letter is reproduced in Annex I to this document. Annex II contains a copy of the Draft Law in English. Annex III contains a copy of the schedule of amendments in English which the Minister for Agriculture Food Security and Cooperatives intends to submit to the Parliament (hereinafter referred to as the "Minister's Amendments").

2. On June 14, 2012, the Office of the Union was informed that the Government of the United Republic of Tanzania had the intention to submit, in the first instance, the Draft Law for Mainland Tanzania for examination by the Council and, at a later stage, the Draft Law or adopted Law for Zanzibar.

BACKGROUND

3. Article 34(3) of the 1991 Act provides that "[a]ny State which is not a member of the Union and any intergovernmental organization shall, before depositing its instrument of accession, ask the Council to advise it in respect of the conformity of its laws with the provisions of this Convention. If the decision embodying the advice is positive, the instrument of accession may be deposited."

4. Since 2007, the Office of the Union has, on various occasions, provided comments on proposed amendments to the "Protection of New Plant Varieties (Plant Breeders' Rights) Act 2002" for Mainland Tanzania (Act of 2002) in relation to the 1991 Act of the UPOV Convention. On September 6, 2010, the Office of the Union was informed that the Draft Amendment Act had been transformed into a consolidated Bill and that the Bill was at the Office of the Attorney General prior to its submission to the Parliament. On that occasion, the Office of the Union was informed that a separate piece of legislation would be enacted for Zanzibar in order to cover the whole territory of the United Republic of Tanzania.

5. On June 1 and 2, 2011, in Zanzibar, United Republic of Tanzania, the Office of the Union gave lectures at a Stakeholders' Workshop on Plant Breeders' Rights and met with governmental officials from Mainland Tanzania and from the Working Group responsible for drafting the plant breeders' rights legislation for Zanzibar. On July 20, 2011, the Office of the Union provided comments on the Draft Law for Mainland Tanzania and the Draft Law for Zanzibar reflecting the discussions and proposals at the meetings on June 1 and 2, 2011, in Zanzibar. The Office of the Union explained that in order to become a member of the Union both pieces of legislation would need to be submitted for examination by the Council.

6. On June 14, 2012, the Office of the Union was informed that the Government of the United Republic of Tanzania had the intention to submit, in the first instance, the Draft Law for Mainland Tanzania for examination by the Council and, at a later stage, the Draft Law or adopted Law for Zanzibar.

BASIS FOR THE PROTECTION OF NEW PLANT VARIETIES IN THE UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA

7. In the United Republic of Tanzania, the protection of new plant varieties is governed by the Act of 2002 (see paragraph 4, above). As the United Republic of Tanzania has the intention to become a member of the Union, the Government of the United Republic of Tanzania has decided to amend the Act of 2002 by means of the Draft Law presented to the Parliament (see Annex II) with the incorporation of the amendments which the Minister for Agriculture Food Security and Cooperatives intends to submit to the Parliament (see Annex III). An analysis of the Draft Law, as it would be amended by the Minister's Amendments, follows in the order of the substantive provisions of the 1991 Act.

Article 1 of the 1991 Act: Definitions

8. Section 2 of the Draft Law contains definitions of breeder and variety corresponding to the definitions in Article 1(iv) and (vi) of the 1991 Act, respectively.

9. The Draft Law in its Section 2 contains a definition of the following term which is not defined in the 1991 Act:

“sell' means to offer, advertise, keep, expose, transmit, convey, deliver or prepare for sale or exchange or dispose off for any consideration or transmit, convey or deliver in pursuance of the sale;”

10. The Draft Law in its Section 2 contains a definition of the following term, which is not defined in the 1991 Act and not used in the Draft Law:

“reproductive material' means a plant or part of the plant used to multiply the plant;”

Article 2 of the 1991 Act: Basic Obligation of the Contracting Parties

11. The Draft Law is entitled “A Bill for An Act to provide for the grant and protection of plant breeders' rights, for establishment of Plant Breeders' Rights Office and for related matters”, corresponding to the basic obligation provided by Article 2 of the 1991 Act.

Article 3 of the 1991 Act: Genera and Species to be Protected

12. Section 12 of the Draft Law provides that “[t]he provisions of this Act shall apply to all plant genera and species”. This conforms with Article 3(2)(ii) of the 1991 Act. It should be noted that, in accordance with Article 36(1)(ii) of the 1991 Act, when depositing its instrument of accession, the United Republic of Tanzania must notify in a declaration that the Law applies to all plant genera and species.

Article 4 of the 1991 Act: National Treatment

13. In relation to the breeder and the filing of applications, the Draft Law does not place any restriction on the nationality, place of residence of natural persons or place of registered offices for legal entities. The Draft Law corresponds to the requirements of Article 4 of the 1991 Act.

Articles 5 to 9 of the 1991 Act: Conditions of Protection, Novelty, Distinctness, Uniformity and Stability

14. With the incorporation of the Minister's Amendments, Section 15 of the Draft Law would read as follows:

"15.-(1) A variety shall be deemed distinct if it is clearly distinguishable from any other variety whose existence is a matter of common knowledge at the time of the filing of the application.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the filing of an application for the granting of breeders' right or for the entering of another variety in the official register of ~~variety varieties~~ in any country, shall be deemed to render that other variety a matter of common knowledge from the date of the application provided that the application leads to the granting of breeders' right or to the entering of the said other variety in the official register of ~~variety varieties~~.

15. Sections 13 to 17 of the Draft Law, with the above modification, contain the conditions of protection corresponding to the provisions of Articles 5 to 9 of the 1991 Act.

16. With the incorporation of the Ministers Amendments, Section 53 of the Draft Law concerning the optional provision of Article 6(2) of the 1991 Act would read as follows:

"53.-(1) Within twelve months from the date of commencement of this Act, the breeder of an existing variety of recent creation may apply to the Registrar in respect of that variety.

~~"(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14, where the Registrar determines that the applicant effectively controls the availability of the variety to the public and if other provisions of Part III are otherwise satisfied in respect of the variety, he may grant a breeder's right in respect of that variety."~~

Article 10 of the 1991 Act: Filing of Applications

17. Sections 18, 19 and 21 of the Draft Law contain provisions on the filing of applications. The Draft Law does not seem to contain provisions which conflict with Article 10 of the 1991 Act.

18. With the incorporation of the Minister's Amendments, Section 21(3) of the Draft Law would read as follows:

"An application filed with the ~~Registrar of Zanzibar~~ Authority responsible for breeder's rights in Zanzibar shall ~~have the same effect of~~ be deemed to be an application for the same variety filed with the Registrar."

Article 11 of the 1991 Act: Right of Priority

19. In order to correspond to the provisions of Article 11(3) of the 1991 Act, it is recommended to modify Section 22(4) of the Draft Law as follows:

"(3) The applicant shall, within a period of two years after the expiration of the period of priority or where the first application is rejected or withdrawn, an appropriate period after such rejection or withdrawal, be allowed to furnish to the Registrar any necessary information, document or material required in this Act for the purpose of the examination."

20. Subject to the above modification, Section 22 of the Draft Law contains provisions on the right of priority corresponding to the provisions of Article 11 of the 1991 Act.

Article 12 of the 1991 Act: Examination of the Application

21. Section 28 of the Draft Law contains provisions concerning the examination of the application corresponding to the provisions of Article 12 of the 1991 Act.

Article 13 of the 1991 Act: Provisional Protection

22. Section 29 of the Draft Law contains provisions on provisional protection corresponding to the provisions of Article 13 of the 1991 Act. It is recommended to make the following correction in Section 29 of the Draft Law:

“The holder of a breeder’s right shall be entitled to equitable remuneration from any person who, during the period between the publication of the application under section ~~23~~ 24 for the grant of a breeder’s right and the date of the grant of that right, has carried out acts which, once the right is granted, require the breeder’s authorization as provided for under section 30.”

Article 14 of the 1991 Act: Scope of the Breeder’s Right

23. Section 30(3) of the Draft Law contains the optional provision “Acts in respect of certain products” of Article 14(3) of the 1991 Act, as follows:

“(4) Subject to Section 31 and 32, the acts referred to in paragraph (a) to (g) of sub-section (1) in respect of products made directly from harvested material of the protected variety falling within the provision of sub-section (3) through the unauthorized use of the said harvested material, shall require the authorization of the breeder, unless the breeder has had reasonable opportunity to exercise his right in relation to the said harvested material.”

24. Section 30(6) and (7) of the Draft Law with the incorporation of the Minister’s Amendments would read as follows:

“(6) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection ~~(4)~~ (5), a variety shall be deemed to be essentially derived from another variety when-

(7) For the purpose of this section essentially derived varieties may be obtained through means such as the selection of a natural or induced ~~mutant or mutant or~~ of a somaclonal ~~variety variant~~, the ~~section of a variety selection of a variant~~ individual from plants of the initial variety, backcrossing, or ~~through~~ transformation by genetic engineering.”

25. Subject to the modifications in the above paragraph, Section 30 of the Draft Law contains provisions on the scope of the breeder’s right corresponding to the provisions of Article 14 of the 1991 Act.

Article 15 of the 1991 Act: Exceptions to the Breeder’s Right

26. Section 31(1) of the Draft Law, with the incorporation of the Minister’s Amendments, would read as follows:

“31.-(1) The breeder’s right shall not extend to-
(a) acts done privately and for non-commercial purposes;
(b) acts done for experimental purposes; and
(c) acts done for the purpose of breeding other varieties, and, except where the provisions of section 30 (5) to (7) apply, acts referred to in section 30(1) ~~and to~~ (4) in respect of such other varieties;”

27. Subject to the modifications in the above paragraph, Section 31(1) of the Draft Law contains provisions concerning the compulsory exceptions to the breeder’s right corresponding to the provisions of Article 15(1) of the 1991 Act.

28. With the incorporation of the Minister's Amendments, Section 31(2) and (3) of the Draft Law concerning the optional exception under Article 15(2) of the 1991 Act would read as follows:

"(2) For the list of agricultural crops specified by the Minister, which shall not include fruits, ornamentals, vegetables or forests trees, the breeder's right shall not extend to a farmer who, within reasonable limits and subject to the safeguarding of the legitimate interests of the holder of the breeder's right, uses for propagating purposes on his own holding, the product of the harvest which he has obtained by planting on his own holding, the protected variety or ~~by planting on his own holding, the protected variety or a~~ a variety covered by Section 30 (5) (a) or (b)."

"(3) The reasonable limits and the means of safeguarding the legitimate interests of the holder of the breeder's right shall be specified in the Regulations."

Article 16 of the 1991 Act: Exhaustion of the Breeder's Right

29. Section 32 of the Draft Law contains provisions concerning the exhaustion of the breeder's right which correspond to the provisions of Article 16 of the 1991 Act.

Article 17 of the 1991 Act: Restrictions on the Exercise of the Breeder's Right

30. Section 41 of the Draft Law contains provisions concerning the restrictions on the exercise of the breeder's right which correspond to the provisions of Article 17 of the 1991 Act.

Article 18 of the 1991 Act: Measures Regulating Commerce

31. The Draft Law does not seem to contain provisions which conflict with Article 18 of the 1991 Act.

Article 19 of the 1991 Act: Duration of the Breeder's Right

32. Section 33 of the Draft Law contains provisions concerning the duration of the breeder's right which correspond to the provisions of Article 19 of the 1991 Act.

"33.-(1) Except as set forth in Part VII, the breeders' right granted under this Act shall expire after twenty years from the date of the grant except for trees and vines whose breeder's right shall expire after twenty five years from the date of grant.

"(2). The term may be extended for an additional five years, by a written notice to the Registrar given by the holder of the breeder's right six months before the expiration of the original term."

Article 20 of the 1991 Act: Variety Denomination

33. With the incorporation of the Minister's Amendments, Section 20(2) and (8) of the Draft Law would read as follows:

"(2) The denomination;
~~and it may not consist solely of figures except where this is an established practice for designating varieties.~~

a) shall enable the variety to be identified;

b) ~~and it~~ shall not be liable to mislead or to cause confusion concerning the characteristics, value or identity of the variety or the identity of the breeder[;]

~~(3) The denomination which designate c) shall be different from every denomination which designates, in the territory of any member of international organization dealing with plant breeder's rights matters to which Tanzania is a party, an existing variety of the same plant species or of a closely related species shall, be different from each other; and~~

~~"(9)(8)The Registrar shall, in writing, inform the authorities of a# the members of an international organization dealing with plant breeder's rights matters to which Tanzania is a party [of] matters concerning variety denominations, in particular the submission, registration and cancellation of denominations."~~

34. The incorporation of the above Minister's Amendments would require the updating of the paragraph numbering and the cross references in Section 20 of the Draft Law. Section 20 of the Draft Law, with the incorporation of the Minister's Amendments, contains provisions on variety denominations corresponding to the provisions of Article 20 of the 1991 Act.

Article 21 of the 1991 Act: Nullity of the Breeder's Right

35. Section 36 of the Draft Law contains provisions on the nullity of the breeder's right corresponding to the provisions of Article 21 of the 1991 Act.

Article 30 of the 1991 Act: Implementation of the Convention
