CONSEIL

Trente septième session ordinaire
Genève, 23 octobre 2003

EXAMEN DE LA CONFORMITE DE LA LOI DE LA REPUBLIQUE D'OUZBEKISTAN
SUR LES OBTENTIONS AVEC L'ACTE DE 1991 DE LA CONVENTION UPOV

Document établi par le Bureau de l'Union

Introduction

1. Par une lettre datée du 12 septembre 2003 adressée au secrétaire général adjoint de l'UPOV, M. Akil A. Azimov, directeur de l'Office d'État des brevets de la République d'Ouzbékistan (ci-après dénommée "Ouzbékistan") a demandé l'examen de la loi de l'Ouzbékistan sur les obtentions (ci-après dénommée "loi"), adoptée le 30 août 2002, du point de vue de sa conformité avec l'Acte de 1991 de la convention UPOV (ci-après dénommé "Acte de 1991"). Cette lettre est reproduite dans l'annexe I du présent document. L'annexe II [en anglais seulement] contient une traduction de la loi en anglais.

2. L'Ouzbékistan n'a pas signé l'Acte de 1991. En vertu de l'article 34.2) de cet acte, il doit donc déposer un instrument d'adhésion pour devenir partie contractante sur la base de l'Acte de 1991. Conformément à l'article 34.3) de l'Acte de 1991, un instrument de ce type ne peut être déposé que si l'État en question a demandé l'avis du Conseil sur la conformité de sa législation avec les dispositions de l'Acte de 1991 et si la décision du Conseil faisant office d'avis est positive.

Fondement de la protection des obtentions végétales en Ouzbékistan

3. En Ouzbékistan, la protection des obtentions végétales sera régie par la loi. L'article 3 de la loi, intitulé "Législation relative aux obtentions" dispose que "la législation relative aux obtentions consiste en la présente loi et d'autres textes législatifs et réglementaires. Si un accord international auquel la République d'Ouzbékistan est partie établit d'autres règles que celles qui sont énoncées par la législation de la République d'Ouzbékistan relative aux obtentions, les règles de l'accord international priment".

4. L'article 3 de la loi illustre le principe général de la Constitution de l'Ouzbékistan qui prévoit qu'en cas de conflit entre un traité et la loi, c'est le traité qui prime (la "disposition constitutionnelle"). La disposition constitutionnelle reprise dans l'article 3 de la loi comblera toute lacune ou contradiction mineure quant au fond avec l'Acte de 1991 qui pourrait être relevée dans le présent document.

Article premier de l'Acte de 1991 : Définitions

5. L'article 2 de la loi contient les définitions des termes importants utilisés dans la loi. Afin de s'aligner sur le texte de la convention, il est recommandé de reprendre la définition de la variété figurant à l'article premier, alinéa vi) de l'Acte de 1991. Cette définition devrait en particulier comporter la précision suivante : "qu'il réponde ou non pleinement aux conditions pour l'octroi d'un droit d'obtenteur".

6. La loi définit à l'article 5 le terme "obtenteur" (en anglais : "creator of a selection achievement"). Il est recommandé de compléter cette définition en incorporant la définition de l'"obtenteur" (en anglais "breeder") figurant à l'article premier, alinéa iv) de l'Acte de 1991. Plus précisément, l'article 5 de la loi définit l'obtenteur comme la personne qui a créé ou découvert l'obtention. L'Acte de 1991 précise qu'on entend par "obtenteur" la personne qui a créé ou qui a découvert et mis au point une variété. La découverte ne suffit pas, il faut mentionner également la mise au point de la variété.

Article 2 de l'Acte de 1991 : Obligation fondamentale des Parties contractantes

7. L'article premier de la loi dispose "La présente loi a pour objet de réglementer les relations dans le domaine de la création, de la protection juridique et de l'utilisation des obtentions". La loi est ainsi conforme à l'article 2 de l'Acte de 1991.

Article 3 de l'Acte de 1991 : Genres et espèces devant être protégés

8. Selon le premier alinéa de l'article 14 de la loi, "[u]n brevet est accordé pour toute obtention satisfaisant aux critères de brevetabilité et relative à des genres et espèces botaniques et zoologiques qui ont droit à une protection en République d'Ouzbékistan". L'Office d'État des brevets de la République d'Ouzbékistan a communiqué au Bureau de l'Union que, à la date du présent document, l'Ouzbékistan applique la loi à 21 genres ou espèces végétaux. Celle-ci respecte ainsi la condition de l'article 3.2)i) de l'Acte de 1991. Lorsqu'il déposera son instrument d'adhésion, l'Ouzbékistan devra notifier cette liste de 21 genres ou espèces végétaux ou une liste mise à jour des genres ou espèces végétaux auxquels l'Ouzbékistan devra appliquer l'Acte de 1991 à la date à laquelle il deviendra lié par la convention.

Article 4 de l'Acte de 1991 : Traitement national

9. Le principe du traitement national est énoncé à l'article 43 de loi, intitulé “Droits des personnes physiques et morales étrangères”, dans des termes qui satisfont aux prescriptions de l'article 4 de l'Acte de 1991.

Articles 5 à 9 de l'Acte de 1991 : Conditions de la protection; nouveauté; distinction; homogénéité; stabilité

10. Les articles 8 à 12 de la loi stipulent les conditions de l'octroi d'une protection juridique aux obtentions d'une façon qui intègre les éléments essentiels des articles 5 à 9 de l'Acte de 1991.

11. La loi prévoit la condition de la nouveauté à l'article 9. Elle fait mention des semences et du matériel végétal (qui s'entend comme étant du matériel de reproduction ou de multiplication végétative), mais elle ne fait pas mention du “produit de récolte” visé à l'article 6 de l'Acte de 1991. Il est recommandé d'incorporer les mots “produit de récolte” dans l'article 9 de la loi. Jusque-là, la disposition constitutionnelle peut pallier cette omission.

12. En ce qui concerne le délai de grâce de six ans, l'article 9 de la version russe de la loi fait mention des “raisins, arbres, plantes ornementales et fruitières et espèces forestières”. L'article 6 de l'Acte de 1991 prévoit que le délai de grâce de six ans ne s'applique que “dans le cas des arbres et de la vigne”. Il est recommandé de vérifier s'il s'agit d'un problème de traduction ou si la loi doit être alignée sur les termes utilisés dans l'article 6 de l'Acte de 1991.

13. En ce qui concerne l'article 10 de la loi, intitulé “Distinction”, il est recommandé d'incorporer au deuxième alinéa de cet article l'élément suivant : “une obtention végétale est également réputée notoirement connue à la date de dépôt, dans tout pays, d'une demande d'inscription sur un registre officiel des obtentions si cette demande aboutit à une inscription sur le registre officiel”. Le texte actuel mentionne l'inscription sur le registre officiel des obtentions mais ne mentionne pas la demande d'inscription. Pour s'aligner sur l'article 7 de l'Acte de 1991, il est recommandé d'ajouter les mots “en particulier” au début du deuxième alinéa de l'article 10 de la loi.

14. L'article 11 de la loi, intitulé “Homogénéité”, utilise en anglais l'expression “selected characteristics”. Il est recommandé de préciser dans le règlement d'application que l'expression “selected characteristics” équivaut à “relevant characteristics” (“caractères pertinents” en français) figurant dans l'article 8 de l'Acte de 1991.

Article 10 de l'Acte de 1991 : Dépôt de demandes

15. Les articles 16, 17 et 24 de la loi énoncent la procédure applicable au dépôt des demandes en des termes conformes à l'article 10 de l'Acte de 1991.

Article 11 de l'Acte de 1991 : Droit de priorité

16. L'article 18 de la loi prévoit "la priorité d'une obtention" conformément aux prescriptions de l'article 11 de l'Acte de 1991. En particulier, il stipule une période de 12 mois à compter de la date du dépôt de la première demande qui correspond au délai de priorité prévu par l'Acte de 1991. Il est recommandé de préciser dans le règlement d'application que le jour du dépôt ne doit pas être compris dans le calcul du délai de priorité de 12 mois.

17. L'alinéa 4 de l'article 18 de la loi prévoit un délai de trois ans à compter de la date du dépôt de la première demande pour fournir les documents et le matériel requis en vue de l'examen de l'obtention, comme le stipule l'article 11 de l'Acte de 1991. Il est suggéré de préciser dans le règlement d'application que, lorsque la première demande est rejetée ou retirée, le déposant bénéficiera d'un délai approprié à compter du rejet ou du retrait pour fournir à l'administration tout renseignement, document ou matériel requis aux fins de l'examen.

Article 12 de l'Acte de 1991 : Examen de la demande

18. Les articles 19, 20, 22 et 23 contiennent des dispositions concernant l'examen de l'obtention qui sont conformes aux exigences énoncées à l'article 12 de l'Acte de 1991.

Article 13 de l'Acte de 1991 : Protection provisoire

19. L'article 21 de la loi prévoit la protection juridique provisoire d'une obtention conformément aux dispositions de l'article 13 de l'Acte de 1991. Il est stipulé qu'une atteinte au droit commise pendant la durée de la protection juridique provisoire permettra au titulaire du brevet de demander un dédommagement pécuniaire. La loi prévoit en outre que le montant de ce dédommagement pécuniaire doit être déterminé en accord avec le titulaire du brevet. Il est recommandé de préciser dans le règlement d'application que, lorsqu'il est difficile de parvenir à un accord sur cette question, le titulaire du brevet disposera de recours légaux appropriés afin d'obtenir au moins une rémunération équitable.

Article 14 de l'Acte de 1991 : Étendue du droit d'obtenteur

20. L'article 30 de la loi incorpore les dispositions essentielles de l'article 14 de l'Acte de 1991. Le quatrième alinéa de l'article 30 prévoit que "[l]e droit d'un titulaire de brevet s'étend également au matériel végétal qui a été produit à partir de semences ou de matériel de plantation d'une variété ou aux animaux mis en vente qui ont été produits à partir d'animaux de race, et qui sont mis en circulation publique sans l'autorisation du titulaire du brevet". Afin d'incorporer complètement la portée de la disposition concernant le produit de la récolte figurant à l'article 14.2) de l'Acte de 1991, il est recommandé d'ajouter à la fin du quatrième alinéa de l'article 30 de la loi : ", à moins que le titulaire du brevet ait raisonnablement pu exercer son droit en relation avec les semences ou le matériel de plantation en question".

21. En ce qui concerne le cinquième alinéa de l'article 30 de la loi concernant les variétés essentiellement dérivées, il est recommandé d'insérer, avant le membre de phrase "sélection d'un mutant naturel ou induit", les mots "par exemple".

Article 15 de l'Acte de 1991 : Exceptions au droit d'obtenteur

22. L'article 31 de la loi comprend les dispositions essentielles de l'article 15 de l'Acte de 1991. Afin d'incorporer complètement dans la loi la portée de l'exception au droit d'obtenteur prévue à l'article 15.1)iii) de l'Acte, il est proposé d'inclure après le mot "sélections" ("breeds" en anglais) le membre de phrase suivant : "et, sauf lorsque les dispositions du cinquième alinéa de l'article 30 s'appliquent, les utilisations visées aux alinéas premier à quatrième de l'article 30 à l'égard de ces autres variétés ou sélections".

23. L'article 31 de la loi prévoit également l'exception facultative visée à l'article 15.2) de l'Acte de 1991. Bien que cette disposition prévoie déjà une période limitée à deux ans, il est recommandé que l'exception soit appliquée "dans des limites raisonnables et sous réserve de la sauvegarde des intérêts légitimes de l'obtenteur", comme le stipule l'article 15.2) de l'Acte de 1991. Le règlement d'application peut donner effet à ces exigences.

Article 16 de l'Acte de 1991 : Épuisement du droit d'obtenteur

24. Les dispositions relatives à l'épuisement du droit d'obtenteur prévues à l'article 16 de l'Acte de 1991 sont incorporées dans l'article 32 de la loi.

Article 17 de l'Acte de 1991 : Limitation de l'exercice du droit d'obtenteur

25. L'article 40 de la loi contient des dispositions sur les licences obligatoires. Il prévoit que des licences obligatoires seront octroyées dans des situations touchant l'intérêt public, conformément à l'exigence énoncée à l'article 17.1) de l'Acte de 1991. Il est recommandé de préciser dans le règlement d'application, en ce qui concerne les licences obligatoires, que le titulaire du brevet doit avoir droit à une rémunération équitable, comme le précise l'article 17.2) de l'Acte de 1991. La loi est conforme à l'article 17 de l'Acte de 1991.

Article 18 de l'Acte de 1991 : Réglementation économique

26. La loi ne semble pas contenir de dispositions contraires à l'article 18 de l'Acte de 1991.

Article 19 de l'Acte de 1991 : Durée du droit d'obtenteur

27. L'article 14 de la loi prévoit une durée de validité du brevet de 20 ans à compter de la date de l'enregistrement et de 25 ans dans le cas des "raisins, arbres, plantes ornementales et fruitières et espèces forestières, y compris leurs pieds-mères". La loi indique également que "la durée de validité d'un brevet peut être prolongée à la demande du titulaire, mais de 10 ans au maximum". Ces périodes de protection sont conformes aux dispositions de l'article 19 de l'Acte de 1991.

28. Comme en ce qui concerne l'exigence de nouveauté (voir le paragraphe 12 du présent document), il convient de préciser les termes utilisés à propos de la durée de validité de 25 ans pour les “raisins, arbres, plantes ornementales et fruitières et espèces forestières, y compris leurs pieds-mères”.

Article 20 de l'Acte de 1991 : Dénomination de la variété

29. L'article 13 de la loi, intitulé “Nom d'une obtention”, contient la plupart des dispositions de l'article 20 de l'Acte de 1991. Il est toutefois recommandé d'incorporer les dispositions complémentaires et éclaircissements suivants dans la loi ou dans son règlement d'application. Il est ainsi suggéré d'ajouter à la fin du quatrième alinéa de l'article 13 de la loi le texte suivant : “à moins que l'office des brevets ne considère que ce nom est inapproprié en République d'Ouzbékistan. En pareil cas, l'office des brevets exige du déposant qu'il fournit un autre nom”. Il est également recommandé d'incorporer les dispositions de l'article 20.1)b), 20.3) concernant les questions de procédure, 20.4) concernant les droits antérieurs des tiers, 20.6) concernant l'information mutuelle des services des Parties contractantes et 20.8) relatif aux indications utilisées en association avec des dénominations. Jusque-là, ces omissions peuvent être palliées par la disposition constitutionnelle.

Article 21 de l'Acte de 1991 : Nullité du droit d'obtenteur

30. L'article 34 de la loi, intitulé “Reconnaissance de la nullité d'un brevet”, comprend la plupart des dispositions concernant la nullité du droit d'obtenteur. Le motif de nullité visé à l'article 21.1)iii) de l'Acte de 1991, à savoir “que le droit d'obtenteur a été octroyé à une personne qui n'y avait pas droit, à moins qu'il ne soit transféré à la personne qui y a droit” ne figure pas dans l'article 34 de la loi. Il est recommandé d'incorporer dans cette dernière les motifs de nullité manquants. Jusque-là, le texte intégral de l'article 21 de l'Acte de 1991 sera incorporé dans la loi par le fait même de l'application de la disposition constitutionnelle.

Article 22 de l'Acte de 1991 : Déchéance de l'obtenteur

31. Le premier alinéa de l'article 35 de la loi énonce la disposition concernant les taxes qui figure à l'article 22.1)b)ii) de l'Acte de 1991. L'article 36 de la loi prévoit tous les autres motifs d'annulation conformément à l'article 22 de l'Acte de 1991.

Article 30 de l'Acte de 1991 : Application de la Convention

32. L'article 30.1)i) de l'Acte de 1991 dispose que chaque Partie contractante “prévoit les recours légaux appropriés permettant de défendre efficacement les droits d'obtenteur”. L'article 33 de la loi précise les motifs d'atteinte au droit d'un titulaire de brevet et l'article 45 de la loi traite de la “responsabilité en cas d'infraction à la législation relative aux obtentions”. La loi est ainsi conforme à l'article 30.1)i) de l'Acte de 1991. L'article 45 fait en outre mention d'une procédure établie. Il est recommandé de préciser dans le règlement d'application ce qui est entendu par “procédure établie”.

33. L'article 30.1)ii) de l'Acte de 1991 dispose que chaque Partie contractante “établit un service chargé d'octroyer des droits d'obtenteur ...”. L'article 4 de la loi prévoit que l'Office d'État des brevets de la République d'Ouzbékistan "applique la politique de l'État dans le domaine de la protection juridique des obtentions". Il prévoit aussi que cet office examine les demandes et octroie les brevets concernant des obtentions. Cet article précise en outre que l'office des brevets doit en référer à la Commission d'État chargée de l'examen des variétés de l'agriculture pour l'examen de la brevetabilité des obtentions revendiquées. La loi est conforme à l'article 30.1)ii) de l'Acte de 1991.

34. L'article 1.i)iii) de l'Acte de 1991 dispose que chaque Partie contractante publie des "renseignements sur les demandes de droits d'obtenteur et les droits d'obtenteur délivrés, et les dénominations proposées et approuvées". L'article 26 de la loi, intitulé "Publication officielle des renseignements relatifs à une obtention", prévoit que les demandes de brevet, les obtentions enregistrées et autres actes importants, y compris les descriptions complètes des obtentions et des accords connexes, seront publiés dans le Bulletin officiel de l'office des brevets. Il est recommandé de préciser dans le règlement d'application que les renseignements concernant les demandes contiendront également des informations sur les dénominations proposées et que les renseignements concernant les obtentions enregistrées donneront également des informations sur les dénominations approuvées, conformément au troisième alinéa de l'article 13 de la loi. Ces dispositions satisfont aux exigences énoncées à l'article 30.1)iii) de l'Acte de 1991.

Conclusion générale

35. La loi incorpore en substance, dans ses principales dispositions, l'Acte de 1991. Les divergences susmentionnées par rapport à une stricte conformité seront palliées par la disposition constitutionnelle (voir les paragraphes 3 et 4 du présent document). Toutefois, il est recommandé que les textes de la législation de l'Ouzbékistan soient complétés lorsque la possibilité s'en présentera, de manière à éviter le recours à la disposition constitutionnelle.

36. Le Bureau de l'Union suggère en conséquence que le Conseil

- a) avise le Gouvernement de l'Ouzbékistan que la loi incorpore en substance, dans ses principales dispositions, l'Acte de 1991, et qu'il peut déposer un instrument d'adhésion à l'Acte de 1991;
- b) invite en outre le Gouvernement de l'Ouzbékistan à compléter les textes de sa législation là où cela est apparu nécessaire, de manière à éviter le recours à la disposition constitutionnelle susmentionnée.

37. Le Conseil est invité à prendre note des renseignements ci-dessus et à adopter la décision figurant au paragraphe qui précède.

- used material or financial resources granted to him (them) by an employer;
- used knowledge and experience constituting the specific features of an organization-employer, acquired by him (them) in the course of employment.

If, within four months of the date on which he is informed by a creator (joint creators) of a created selection achievement, an employer does not file an application for the grant of a patent with the Patent Office, does not transfer the right to file an application for the grant of a patent to another person, and does not inform the creator (joint creators) of the preservation of a selection achievement in secret, the creator (joint creators) shall be entitled to file an application and to obtain a patent in his (their) own name(s). II. PATENTABILITY OF A SELECTION ACHIEVEMENT

Article 8

Conditions for the granting of legal protection of selection achievements

A selection achievement shall be granted legal protection if it meets the following criteria: novelty, distinctness, uniformity and stability.

A selection achievement shall bear a name in accordance with the requirements of Article 13 of this Law.

Article 9

Novelty

A selection achievement shall be considered novel if, at the date of filing of an application for the grant of a patent, the seeds, plant material of the variety or the breeding material of the breed has not been sold or transferred to other persons by the creator, his heir or with their consent for exploitation:

- on the territory of the Republic of Uzbekistan – more than one year before this date;
- on the territory of another State – more than four years or, where this relates to grapes, tree, ornamental, fruit crops and forest species – more than six years before the date in question.

Article 10

Distinctness

A selection achievement at the date of filing of an application for the grant of a patent shall be clearly distinguished from any other commonly known selection achievement.

A selection achievement shall be considered commonly known at the application filing date, if the application for the grant of a patent therefor was filed in any country and, following this application, a patent was granted, or some similar form of protection provided, or the selection achievement was included in the official register of selection achievements of this country.

Common knowledge shall be established:

- in relation to a selection achievement which has become part of a commonly known level of knowledge as a result of its production, reproduction, bringing the selection achievement to a variety or breeding condition with the aim of subsequent propagation, storage and maintenance for the above-mentioned purposes;
- in relation to a selection achievement which has been offered for sale, sold, imported or exported.

Article 11

Uniformity

A selection achievement shall be considered uniform if, taking into account the features of propagation, plants of a particular variety or animals of a particular breed are uniform according to selected characteristics.

Article 12

Stability

A selection achievement shall be considered stable, if its relevant characteristics remain unchanged after repeated propagation or, in the case of a particular propagation cycle, at the end of each propagation cycle.

Article 13

Name of a selection achievement

A selection achievement shall have a name proposed by an applicant and adopted by the Patent Office.

The name of a selection achievement shall allow the selection achievement to be identified, be brief, differ from the names of existing selection achievements of the same or of a close related botanical or zoological species. It shall not consist solely of figures, lead to confusion as regards the characteristics, origin or meaning of the selection achievement, personality of the creator (joint creators), or contravene the principles of humanity and morality.

The name of a selection achievement shall be entered in the appropriate register at the same time as information on the protected selection achievement is entered therein.

If an application for the grant of a patent is filed in the Republic of Uzbekistan and other States, the name of the selection achievement in these applications shall be identical.

Any person offering for sale or selling in the Republic of Uzbekistan, or on the territory of a country with which the Republic of Uzbekistan has concluded an agreement on legal

The right to a patent for a selection achievement created by a creator (joint creators) as a result of the performance of his (their) duties, or of a specific task, or with the knowledge and experience constituting specific features of an organization-employer, shall belong to the employer, provided this is specified by agreement between them.

If several persons have created a selection achievement independently of each other, the right to a patent shall belong to the person whose application for the grant of a patent has been filed with the Patent Office earlier, provided that the application has not been withdrawn or rejected.

A creator (joint creators), for whose selection achievement an application has been filed or a patent obtained as the result of unlawful borrowing, shall be entitled to challenge the grant of the patent or to demand that the patent should be transferred to him (them), as the patent owner(s), in accordance with judicial procedure.

Employees of the Patent Office and the specialized organizations shall not be entitled to obtain a patent, or to be referred to as the creator (joint creators), either throughout the period of their employment therein, or for a year after their employment has ceased.

If identical applications for the grant of a patent have the same priority date, the patent shall be granted for the application with the earlier date of dispatch to the Patent Office or with the earlier incoming registration number.

If an application for the grant of a patent received by the Patent Office preceded an application filed by the applicant in another State (hereinafter – first application), with which the Republic of Uzbekistan has concluded an agreement on the legal protection of selection achievements, the applicant shall have the right to priority according to the first application for a period of twelve months from the filing date of that application.

If the selection achievement meets the patentability criteria and its name meets the established requirements, a specialized organization shall prepare an official description of the selection achievement, and the Patent Office shall decide to grant a patent.

If the selection achievement does not meet the patentability criteria, the Patent Office shall decide to refuse to grant a patent.

Within three months, an applicant may appeal a Patent Office decision with the Appeal Board. The appeal shall be examined by the Appeal Board within two months of it being received, unless additional testing of the selection achievement is required.
