INTERNATIONALER VERBAND ZUM SCHUTZ VON PFLANZENZÜCHTUNGEN

Genf

DER RAT

Siebenundvierzigste ordentliche Tagung Genf, 24. Oktober 2013

PRÜFUNG DER VEREINBARKEIT DES GESETZES BOSNIEN-HERZEGOWINAS ZUM SCHUTZ VON PFLANZENZÜCHTUNGEN MIT DER AKTE VON 1991 DES UPOV-ÜBEREINKOMMENS

Vom Verbandsbüro erstelltes Dokument

Haftungsausschluß: dieses Dokument gibt nicht die Grundsätze oder eine Anleitung der UPOV wieder

1. Mit Schreiben vom 27. Juni 2013 an den Generalsekretär der UPOV ersuchte Herr Uzunović Zeid, Stellvertretender Direktor des Amtes für den Schutz der Pflanzengesundheit von Bosnien-Herzegowina, Ministerium für Außenhandel und Wirtschaftsbeziehungen, um Prüfung der Vereinbarkeit des am 16. April 2013 geänderten Gesetzes zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen von Bosnien-Herzegowina vom 23. Februar 2010 (nachstehend das „Gesetz“) mit der Akte von 1991 des UPOV-Übereinkommens (nachstehend die „Akte von 1991“). Das Schreiben ist in Anlage I dieses Dokuments wiedergegeben. Anlage II enthält eine Übersetzung des Gesetzentwurfs ins Englische.

HINTERGRUND

2. Artikel 34 Absatz 3 der Akte von 1991 sieht vor: „Jeder Staat, der dem Verband nicht angehört, sowie jede zwischenstaatliche Organisation ersuchen vor Hinterlegung ihrer Beitrittskunde den Rat um eine Stellungnahme, ob ihre Rechtsvorschriften mit diesem Übereinkommen vereinbar sind. Ist der Beschuß über die Stellungnahme positiv, so kann die Beitrittskunde hinterlegt werden.“
3. Die Regierung von Bosnien-Herzegowina leitete das Verfahren für einen Beitritt zur UPOV mit einem Schreiben vom 2. Oktober 2008, mit dem die Regierung von Bosnien-Herzegowina um die Stellungnahme des Rates zur Vereinbarkeit des am 27. Juli 2004 vom Parlament verabschiedeten Gesetzes zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen von Bosnien-Herzegowina (Gesetz von 2004) mit der Akte von 1991 ersuchte, ein.
4. Der Rat entschied auf seiner zweiundvierzigsten ordentlichen Tagung am 30. Oktober 2008 in Genf:

- „a) die Analyse in Dokument C/42/19 zur Kenntnis zu nehmen;
- b) zu empfehlen, daß Bosnien-Herzegowina die in Dokument C/42/19 dargelegten zusätzlichen Bestimmungen und Änderungen in das Gesetz aufnehme, und zu empfehlen, daß nach Aufnahme der zusätzlichen Bestimmungen und Änderungen in das Gesetz das geänderte Gesetz dem Rat gemäß Artikel 34 Absatz 3 der Akte von 1991 zur Prüfung vorgelegt werde;
- c) das Verbandsbüro zu ersuchen, der Regierung von Bosnien-Herzegowina bei der frühesten Gelegenheit bei der Abfassung der erforderlichen zusätzlichen Bestimmungen und Änderungen des Gesetzes seine Unterstützung anzubieten, und

d) den Generalsekretär zu ermächtigen, die Regierung von Bosnien-Herzegowina von dieser Entscheidung zu unterrichten (vergleiche Dokument C/42/21 „Bericht“, Absatz 18“).

5. Am 15. und 16. Januar 2009 leistete das Verbandsbüro in Sarajevo der Regierung Bosnien-Herzegowinas unter Berücksichtigung der Empfehlungen des Rates von 2008 Unterstützung bei der Erstellung der vorläufigen Fassung des Gesetzentwurfs über den Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen aufgrund der Akte von 1991 des UPOV-Übereinkommens.

6. Am 20. März 2010 übermittelte Frau Mirjana Brzica, Leiterin, Abteilung für Saatgut, Keimpflanzen und Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen, Amt für den Schutz der Pflanzengesundheit von Bosnien-Herzegowina, Ministerium für Außenhandel und Wirtschaftsbeziehungen, mit dem Ersuchen um Bemerkungen des Verbandsbüros eine Kopie des „Gesetzes zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen in Bosnien-Herzegowina“, das vom Parlament von Bosnien-Herzegowina am 23. Februar 2010 (Gesetz von 2010) angenommen worden war.

7. Am 28. Mai 2010 gab das Verbandsbüro Bemerkungen zu dem Gesetz von 2010 ab und merkte an, daß der Großteil der Empfehlungen aus den Entscheidungen des Rates aus dem Jahre 2008 in das Gesetz aufgenommen wurde. Es wurde jedoch angemerkt, daß zur Vereinbarkeit mit dem UPOV-Übereinkommen verschiedene Änderungen sowie Überprüfungen am Originaltext des Gesetzes von 2010 erforderlich seien. Das Verbandsbüro unterrichtete Frau Brzica, daß der Gesetzentwurf oder das angenommene Gesetz mit den Änderungen aufgrund der Bemerkungen vom 28. Mai 2010 dem Rat zur Prüfung auf dessen Vereinbarkeit mit dem UPOV-Übereinkommen vorgelegt werden müsse.

8. Am 2. September 2011 wurde das Verbandsbüro von Frau Brzica darüber informiert, daß die für den Schutz der Pflanzengesundheit zuständige Verwaltungsstelle von Bosnien-Herzegowina mit der Ausarbeitung eines konsolidierten Textes, der den am 28. Mai 2010 vom Verbandsbüro vorgeschlagenen Änderungen und Überprüfungen des Originaltextes des Gesetzes Rechnung trägt, begonnen habe.

9. Am 24. April 2012 ersuchte Frau Brzica um Bemerkungen des Verbandsbüros zu den einzelnen vorgeschlagenen Änderungen des Gesetzes von 2010 und dem konsolidierten Text, der den am 28. Mai 2010 vom Verbandsbüro vorgeschlagenen Änderungen und Prüfungen des Originaltextes des Gesetzes Rechnung trägt. Das Verbandsbüro gab am 19. Juli 2012 und am 8. August 2012 Bemerkungen ab.

10. Am 7. Juni 2013 wurde das Verbandsbüro von Frau Brzica darüber informiert, daß das Gesetz von 2010 am 16. April 2013 geändert worden sei und daß die Regierung von Bosnien-Herzegowina beabsichtige, das Gesetz in seiner 2013 geänderten Fassung zur Prüfung durch den Rat einzureichen (siehe Absatz 1, oben).

Rechtsgrundlage für den Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen in Bosnien-Herzegowina

11. In Bosnien-Herzegowina wird der Schutz neuer Pflanzensorten von dem am 23. Februar 2010 von der Parlamentarischen Versammlung angenommenen Gesetz zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen von Bosnien-Herzegowina vom 23. Februar 2010 in seiner am 16. April 2013 geänderten Fassung geregelt. Eine Analyse des Gesetzes folgt in der Reihenfolge der wesentlichen Rechtsvorschriften der Akte von 1991.

Artikel 1 der Akte von 1991: Begriffsbestimmungen

12. Artikel 2 des Gesetzes enthält Begriffsbestimmungen des Züchters und der Sorte, die den jeweils in den Nummern iv und vi von Artikel 1 der Akte von 1991 gegebenen Begriffsbestimmungen entspricht.

Artikel 2 der Akte von 1991: Grundlegende Verpflichtung der Vertragsparteien

13. Artikel 1 Absatz 1 des Gesetzes sieht vor: „Das Gesetz zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen von Bosnien-Herzegowina (nachstehend „das Gesetz“) legt die Verfahren zum Schutz neuer Pflanzenzüchtungen, Bedingungen, Erteilung, Methode und Verfahren für den Schutz sowie die Dauer des Züchterrechtes fest“, was der grundlegenden Verpflichtung gemäß Artikel 2 der Akte von 1991 entspricht.

Artikel 3 der Akte von 1991: Gattungen und Arten, die geschützt werden müssen

14. Artikel 4 des Gesetzes lautet: „Dieses Gesetz ist am Tag seines Inkrafttretens auf alle Pflanzengattungen und -arten anwendbar“. Dies ist mit Artikel 3 Absatz 2 Nummer ii der Akte von 1991 vereinbar. Es ist darauf hinzuweisen, daß Bosnien-Herzegowina bei der Hinterlegung seiner Beitrittsurkunde gemäß Artikel 36 Absatz 1 Nummer ii der Akte von 1991 in einer Erklärung amtlich mitteilen muß, daß das Gesetz auf alle Pflanzengattungen und -arten anwendbar ist.

Artikel 4 der Akte von 1991: Inländerbehandlung

15. Artikel 5 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen zur Inländerbehandlung. Das Gesetz entspricht den Anforderungen von Artikel 4 der Akte von 1991.

Artikel 5 bis 9 der Akte von 1991: Schutzvoraussetzungen, Neuheit, Unterscheidbarkeit, Homogenität, Beständigkeit

16. Die Artikel 6 bis 10 des Gesetzes enthalten die Schutzvoraussetzungen, die den Bestimmungen der Artikel 5 bis 9 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

17. Artikel 7 Absätze 2 und 3 des Gesetzes bezüglich der freigestellte Bestimmung nach Artikel 6 Absatz 2 der Akte von 1991 lautet wie folgt:

„2) Ist dieses Gesetz gemäß Artikel 4 dieses Gesetzes auf eine Pflanzengattung oder -art anwendbar, auf die es zuvor nicht anwendbar war, so werden die Sorten, die dieser Pflanzengattung oder -art angehören, so angesehen, daß sie die in Absatz 1 dieses Artikels festgelegte Neuheitsvoraussetzung erfüllen, selbst wenn der Verkauf oder die Abgabe an andere, die in jenem Absatz beschrieben sind, im Hoheitsgebiet von Bosnien-Herzegowina innerhalb von vier Jahren vor dem Tag der Einreichung oder, im Fall von Bäumen oder Reben, innerhalb von sechs Jahren vor dem besagten Tag stattfand.

3) Die Bestimmung nach Absatz 2 dieses Artikels ist nur auf Anträge auf Erteilung des Schutzes des Züchterrechts anwendbar, die spätestens innerhalb eines Jahres, nachdem die Bestimmungen des Gesetzes auf die betreffenden Gattungen oder Arten angewandt werden, eingereicht werden.“

Artikel 10 der Akte von 1991: Einreichung von Anträgen

18. Artikel 12 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über die Einreichung von Anträgen. Das Gesetz scheint keine Bestimmungen zu enthalten, die im Widerspruch zu Artikel 10 der Akte von 1991 stehen.

Artikel 11 der Akte von 1991: Priorität

19. Artikel 14 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über das Prioritätsrecht, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 11 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 12 der Akte von 1991: Prüfung des Antrags

20. Artikel 15 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über die Prüfung des Antrags, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 12 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 13 der Akte von 1991: Vorläufiger Schutz

21. Artikel 18 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über den vorläufigen Schutz, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 13 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 14 der Akte von 1991: Inhalt des Züchterrechts

22. Artikel 21 Absatz 4 des Gesetzes enthält die freigestellte Bestimmung „Handlungen in bezug auf bestimmte Erzeugnisse“ gemäß Artikel 14 Absatz 3 der Akte von 1991 wie folgt:

„4) Die unter Buchstaben a bis g von Absatz 1 dieses Artikels erwähnten Handlungen in bezug auf Erzeugnisse, die durch ungenehmigte Benutzung von Erntegut, das unter die Bestimmungen von Absatz 3 dieses Artikels fällt, erfordern die Zustimmung des Züchters, es sei denn, daß der Züchter angemessene Gelegenheit hatte, sein Recht mit Bezug auf das genannte Erntegut auszuüben.“

23. Artikel 2 Buchstabe f und Artikel 21 des Gesetzes enthalten Bestimmungen über den Inhalt des Züchterrechts, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 14 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 15 der Akte von 1991: Ausnahmen vom Züchterrecht

24. Artikel 22 Absatz 1 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über die verbindlichen Ausnahmen vom Züchterrecht, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 15 Absatz 1 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

25. Artikel 15 Absatz 2 der Akte von 1991 sieht folgendes vor:

„2) [Freigestellte Ausnahme] Abweichend von Artikel 14 kann jede Vertragspartei in angemessenem Rahmen und unter Wahrung der berechtigten Interessen des Züchters das Züchterrecht in bezug auf jede Sorte einschränken, um es den Landwirten zu gestatten, Erntegut, das sie aus dem Anbau einer geschützten Sorte oder einer in Artikel 14 Absatz 5 Buchstabe a Nummer i oder ii erwähnten Sorte im eigenen Betrieb gewonnen haben, im eigenen Betrieb zum Zwecke der Vermehrung zu verwenden.“

26. Artikel 22 Absätze 2 bis 6 des Gesetzes enthalten Bestimmungen bezüglich der freigestellten Ausnahme nach Artikel 15 Absatz 2 der Akte von 1991 wie folgt:

„2) In bezug auf die in einer Liste landwirtschaftlicher Pflanzen aufgeführten Sorten wird das Züchterrecht nicht verletzt durch Kleinbauern, die in angemessenem Rahmen und unter Wahrung der berechtigten Interessen des Züchters das Erntegut, das sie aus dem Anbau der geschützten Sorte oder einer in Artikel 21 Absatz 5 Buchstabe a oder b dieses Gesetzes erwähnten Sorte im eigenen Betrieb gewonnen haben, im eigenen Betrieb zum Zwecke der Vermehrung verwenden (nachfolgend „Nachbausaatgut“).

3) Wird Nachbausaatgut verwendet, so sind die Landwirte dazu verpflichtet, dem Züchter eine angemessene Vergütung für die Verwendung von Nachbausaatgut zu bezahlen, die erheblich niedriger als die Vergütung für gekauftes Saatgut ist. Kleinbauern sind von der Verpflichtung zur Bezahlung einer Vergütung für das Nachbausaatgut ausgenommen.

4) Die Kriterien für Kleinbauern werden von der Behörde vorgegeben werden.

5) Der Züchter ist dazu berechtigt, erforderliche Informationen in bezug auf das Nachbausaatgut in schriftlicher Form von den Landwirten anzufordern.

6) Sorten von Obst-, Zier-, Gemüse- und Forstpflanzen sind von der Ausnahme nach Absatz 2 dieses Artikels ausgenommen.

27. Artikel 22 Absätze 2 bis 6 des Gesetzes beinhalten zwar die wesentlichen Bestimmungen von Artikel 15 Absatz 2 der Akte von 1991, aber um klarzustellen, für welche Landwirte die Ausnahme für Nachbausaatgut gilt, wird empfohlen, entweder das Wort „Kleinbauern“ durch „Landwirte“ in Artikel 22 Absatz 2 des Gesetzes zu ersetzen, oder Artikel 22 Absatz 3 des Gesetzes zu streichen und am Ende von Artikel 22 Absatz 2 des Gesetzes den Satz „Der angemessene Rahmen und die Wahrung der berechtigten Interessen des Züchters werden in den Ausführungsbestimmungen vorgesehen“ hinzuzufügen.

Artikel 16 der Akte von 1991: Erschöpfung des Züchterrechts

28. Artikel 23 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über die Erschöpfung des Züchterrechts, die den Bestimmungen in Artikel 16 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 17 der Akte von 1991: Beschränkungen in der Ausübung des Züchterrechts

29. Artikel 24 und Artikel 34 des Gesetzes enthalten Bestimmungen über die Beschränkungen in der Ausübung des Züchterrechts, die den Bestimmungen in Artikel 17 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 18 der Akte von 1991: Maßnahmen zur Regelung des Handels

30. Artikel 25 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über Maßnahmen zur Regelung des Handels, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 18 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen. Das Gesetz scheint keine Bestimmungen zu enthalten, die im Widerspruch zu Artikel 18 der Akte von 1991 stehen.

Artikel 19 der Akte von 1991: Dauer des Züchterrechts

31. Artikel 26 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über die Dauer des Züchterrechts, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 19 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 20 der Akte von 1991: Sortenbezeichnung

32. Artikel 28 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über Sortenbezeichnungen, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 20 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 21 der Akte von 1991: Nichtigkeit des Züchterrechts

33. Artikel 29 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über die Nichtigkeit des Züchterrechts, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 21 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 22 der Akte von 1991: Aufhebung des Züchterrechts

34. Artikel 30 des Gesetzes enthält Bestimmungen über die Aufhebung des Züchterrechts, die den Bestimmungen des Artikels 22 der Akte von 1991 entsprechen.

Artikel 30 der Akte von 1991: Anwendung des Übereinkommens

35. Hinsichtlich der Verpflichtung, „geeignete Rechtsmittel [vorzusehen], die eine wirksame Wahrung der Züchterrechte ermöglichen“ (Artikel 30 Absatz 1 Nummer i der Akte von 1991), sehen die Artikel 36 bis 46 und Artikel 49 bis 55 des Gesetzes vorläufige, zivilrechtliche, strafrechtliche und zollrechtliche Maßnahmen zur Wahrung der Züchterrechte vor.

36. Bezuglich der Verpflichtung nach Artikel 30 Absatz 1 Nummer ii der Akte von 1991 heißt es in Artikel 1 Absatz 2 des Gesetzes folgendermaßen:

„2) Das Amt für Pflanzenschutz von Bosnien-Herzegowina (nachstehend das Amt) ist die Behörde, die mit der Aufgabe der Erteilung der Züchterrechte in Einklang mit dem Gesetz beauftragt ist.

37. Die Artikel 11 Absatz 8, Artikel 13 Absatz 7, Artikel 16 Absatz 4 und Artikel 28 Absatz 3 des Gesetzes entsprechen der Verpflichtung zur Veröffentlichung von Mitteilungen über Anträge auf und Erteilung von Züchterrechten sowie über die vorgeschlagenen und genehmigten Sortenbezeichnungen gemäß Artikel 30 Absatz 1 Nummer iii der Akte von 1991.

Allgemeine Schlußfolgerung

38. Nach Ansicht des Verbandsbüros enthält das Gesetz die wesentlichen Bestimmungen der Akte von 1991. Auf dieser Grundlage ist die Regierung von Bosnien-Herzegowina in der Lage, den Bestimmungen der Akte von 1991 „Wirkung zu verleihen“, wie in deren Artikel 30 Absatz 2 vorgeschrieben.

39. Der Rat wird ersucht,

a) die Analyse in diesem Dokument zur Kenntnis zu nehmen;

b) zum Zwecke der Klarstellung, für welche Landwirte die Ausnahme für Nachbausaatgut gilt, zu empfehlen, entweder das Wort „Kleinbauern“ durch „Landwirte“ in Artikel 22 Absatz 2 des Gesetzes zu ersetzen, oder Artikel 22 Absatz 3 des Gesetzes zu streichen und am Ende von Artikel 22 Absatz 2 des Gesetzes den Satz „Der angemessene Rahmen und die Wahrung der berechtigten Interessen des Züchters werden in den Ausführungsbestimmungen vorgesehen“ hinzuzufügen.

c) eine positive Entscheidung über die Vereinbarkeit des Gesetzes über den Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen mit den Bestimmungen der Akte von 1991 des Internationalen Übereinkommens zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen zu treffen, was Bosnien-Herzegowina in die Lage versetzt, seine Beitrittsurkunde zu hinterlegen, und

d) den Generalsekretär zu ermächtigen, die Regierung von Bosnien-Herzegowina von oben stehender Empfehlung und Entscheidung zu unterrichten.

Betreff: Gesetz Bosnien Herzegowinas zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen

Sehr geehrter Herr Generalsekretär Gurry, ich freue mich, Ihnen mitteilen zu können, daß das „Gesetz Bosnien-Herzegowinas zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen“ am 23. Februar 2010 von der Parlamentarischen Versammlung von Bosnien-Herzegowina angenommen und am 16. April 2013 geändert wurde.

Bosnien-Herzegowina beabsichtigt, dem Internationalen Übereinkommen zum Schutz von Pflanzenzüchtungen vom 2. Dezember 1961, revidiert in Genf am 10. November 1972, am 23. Oktober 1978 und am 19. März 1991, beizutreten (UPOV-Übereinkommen).

Ich würde es begrüßen, wenn der Rat der UPOV in Übereinstimmung mit Artikel 34 Absatz 3 des UPOV-Übereinkommens die Vereinbarkeit des Gesetzes über Pflanzenzüchterrechte für Bosnien Herzegowina mit dem UPOV-Übereinkommen prüfen würde.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen

Pursuant to Article IV 4. a) of the Constitution of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Parliamentary Assembly of Bosnia and Herzegovina, at its 71. session of the House of Representatives held on 03. and 10. February 2010, and at the 43. session of the House of Peoples, held on 23. February 2010 passed the

LAW
ON PROTECTION OF NEW VARIETIES OF PLANTS
IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

PART ONE

CHAPTER I – GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1
(Subject of the Law)

(1) The Law on Protection of New Varieties of Plants in Bosnia and Herzegovina (hereinafter “the Law”) defines the procedures for protection of new varieties of plants, conditions, assignment, method and procedure for protection and duration of breeder's right.

(2) The Administration of Bosnia and Herzegovina for plant protection (hereinafter the Administration) is the authority entrusted with the task of granting breeder's right according to the Law.

Article 2
(Definitions)

(1) Terms used in this Law shall have the following meanings:

- a) “Breeder” means:
 - 1) a person who bred, or discovered and developed, a new variety independently or jointly with other persons;
 - 2) the person who is the employer of the aforementioned person or who has commissioned the latter's work;
 - 3) the person who is the legal successor in title of the person who bred, or discovered and developed, a new variety or of his employer.
- b) “person” means: physical person or legal entity;
- c) “breeder's right” means the right of the breeder provided for in this Law;
- d) “variety” means: a plant grouping within a single botanical taxon of the lowest known rank, which grouping, irrespective of whether other conditions for protection are fully met, can be:
 - 1) defined by the expression of the characteristics resulting from a given genotype or combination of genotypes,
 - 2) distinguished from any other plant grouping by the expression of at least one of the said characteristics and
 - 3) considered as a unit with regard to its suitability for being propagated unchanged;
- e) “protected variety” is a variety which is protected in accordance with the provisions of this Law;
- f) “essentially derived variety” may be obtained for example by the selection of a natural or induced mutant, or of a somaclonal variant, the selection of a variant individual from plants of the initial variety, backcrossing, or transformation by genetic engineering;
- g) “Register of applications for protection of the right of breeder” is a register in which properly submitted applications for protection of the rights of breeders are entered;

- h "Register of transferred breeder's right" is a register in which the transferred breeders' rights are entered;
- i) "Register of Contractual Licenses" is a register in which Contractual Licenses are entered;
- j) "Register of agents" is a register in which agents of breeder's right are entered;
- k) "Register of protected plant varieties" is a register in which protected plant varieties and assigned breeder's right are entered;
- l) "authorized institution" – is the Administration of Bosnia and Herzegovina for plant protection;
- m) "UPOV" means the International Union for the Protection of New Varieties of Plants;
- n) "member of UPOV" means a State party to the UPOV Convention of 1961/Act of 1972 or the Act of 1978 or a Contracting Party to the 1991 Act, which shall apply the provisions of this Convention;
- o) "territory" means where the member state of UPOV, Contracting Party is a State, the territory of that state and, for intergovernmental organization, the territory in which the constituting treaty applies.

CHAPTER II - SPECIAL PROVISIONS

Article 3 (Commission for Protection of New Varieties of Plants)

- (1) Based on the proposal of the Administration the Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall issue a Decision to appoint members of the Commission for the protection of new varieties of plants (hereinafter: the Commission).
- (2) The Commission consists of specialists in the field of protection of plant varieties proposed by the competent authorities of the entities and of Brčko District of Bosnia and Herzegovina.
- (3) The Commission consists of a maximum five (5) members.
- (4) The Commission is responsible for providing expert opinions, proposals and monitoring in the field of protection of varieties, as well as giving prior consent to the procedure of adopting a Decision on the acquisition of breeder's right.

Article 4 (Genera and Species to be Protected)

This Law shall be applied on the date of its coming into force to all plant genera and species.

Article 5 (National Treatment)

- (1) Breeder's right may acquire a natural person, a citizen of Bosnia and Herzegovina, resident in Bosnia and Herzegovina, or legal entity with its registered office in Bosnia and Herzegovina.
- (2) Foreign natural or legal person has the same treatment in the acquisition and protection of breeder's right in Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as the citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina, as is accorded by the international agreements to which Bosnia and Herzegovina is party to.
- (3) Any State which, not being a member of UPOV, grants national treatment to the nationals of Bosnia and Herzegovina, shall enjoy national treatment in Bosnia and Herzegovina.
- (4) In proceedings before the agency performing the activities of protection of varieties, the state administration and the courts, the foreign legal and natural persons exercise the same rights under this Law by an authorized representative in a process of variety protection as domestic legal or natural persons.

PART TWO

CHAPTER III- CONDITIONS FOR THE GRANTING OF A BREEDER'S RIGHT

Article 6
(Conditions for the Granting of a Breeder's Right)

- (1) A variety is protected by the granting of a breeder's right.
- (2) The breeder's right shall be granted where the variety is:
 - a) new;
 - b) distinct;
 - c) uniform and
 - d) stable
- (3) The grant of the breeder's right shall not be subject to any further or different conditions, provided that the variety is designated by a denomination in accordance with this Law, and that the applicant complies with the formalities provided for in this Law and that he pays the required fees.

Article 7
(Novelty)

- (1) The variety shall be deemed to be new if, at the date of filing of the application for a breeder's right, propagating or harvested material of the variety has not been sold or otherwise disposed of to others, by or with the consent of the breeder, for purposes of exploitation of the variety:
 - a) in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina earlier than one year before the date of filing of the application and
 - b) in a territory other than that of Bosnia and Herzegovina earlier than four years or, in the case of trees or of vines, earlier than six years before the date of filing of the application.
- (2) Where this Law, according to Article 4 of this Law, applies to a plant genus or species to which it did not previously apply, varieties belonging to such plant genus or species shall be considered to satisfy the condition of novelty defined in paragraph (1) of this Article even where the sale or disposal to others described in that paragraph took place in Bosnia and Herzegovina within four years before the filing date or, in the case of trees or of vines, within six years before the said date.
- (3) The provision under paragraph (2) of this Article, shall only apply to applications for protection of the breeder's right filed within one year, at the latest, after the provisions of this Law apply to the genera or species concerned.
- (4) The following acts shall be considered not to result in the loss of novelty:
 - a) variety is made available to others for the purpose of testing not involving some other form of exploitation of the variety
 - b) sale or disposal of to others without the consent of the breeder;
 - c) sale or disposal of to others that forms part of an agreement for the transfer of rights to the successor in title;
 - d) sale or disposal of to others that forms part of an agreement under which a person multiplies propagating material of a variety on behalf of the breeder where that agreement requires that the property in the multiplied material reverts to the breeder;
 - e) sale or disposal of to others that forms part of an agreement under which a person undertakes field tests or laboratory trials, or small-scale processing trials, with a view to evaluating the variety;
 - f) sale or disposal of to others that forms part of the fulfillment of a statutory or administrative obligation, in particular concerning biosafety or the entry of varieties in an official catalogue of varieties admitted to trade;
 - g) sale or disposal of to others of harvested material which is a by-product or a surplus product of the creation of the variety or of the activities referred to in items (d) to (f) of this paragraph, provided that the said material is sold or disposed of without variety identification for the purposes of consumption and

h) disposal of to others for the purposes of displaying the variety at an official, or officially recognized, exhibition.

Article 8
(Distinctness)

The variety shall be deemed to be distinct if it is clearly distinguishable from any other variety whose existence is a matter of common knowledge at the time of the filing of the application. In particular, the filing of an application for the granting of a breeder's right or for the entering of another variety in an official list of varieties (a register), in any country, shall be deemed to render that other variety a matter of common knowledge from the date of the application, provided that the application leads to the granting of a breeder's right or to the entering of the said other variety in the official register of varieties, as the case may be.

Article 9
(Uniformity)

The variety shall be deemed to be uniform if, subject to the variation that may be expected from the particular features of its propagation, it is sufficiently uniform in its relevant characteristics.

Article 10
(Stability)

The variety shall be deemed to be stable if its relevant characteristics remain unchanged after repeated propagation or, in the case of a particular cycle of propagation, at the end of each such cycle.

CHAPTER IV- PROCEDURE FOR THE GRANT OF A BREEDER'S RIGHT

Article 11
(Start of the Proceedings)

- (1) Granting of a breeder's right is achieved in the administrative procedure led by the Administration.
- (2) In other matters, which are not regulated by this Law, the provisions of the Law on Administrative Procedure ("Official Gazette of BiH", no.29/02, 12/04 and 88/07) are applied accordingly.
- (3) The proceeding for granting of the starts by submitting the Application for the grant of the breeder's right to the Administration.
- (4) If the Application for granting of the breeder's right was filed by more breeders, the breeder's right is granted to each of the breeders by the issued Decision.
- (5) The Decision referred to in paragraph (4) of this Article cannot determine the mutual rights of the breeders.
- (6) The procedure for granting the breeder's right starts by filing an application also outside of Bosnia and Herzegovina, if so provided by the international agreement to which Bosnia and Herzegovina is party to.
- (7) Validity of the recognized rights based on the application from paragraph (6) of this Article is balanced with the rights that are recognized on the basis of the application within Bosnia and Herzegovina, unless otherwise provided by international treaty.
- (8) The Administration publishes the Application for granting of the breeder's right as well as any withdrawal or refusal of the application.

Article 12
(Filing the Application)

- (1) The filing date of the application for the breeder's right shall be the date of receipt of the application duly filed. The application shall be submitted in one of the official languages in Bosnia and Herzegovina and in writing. The breeder or his authorized representative is required, together with the Application for granting of the breeder's right, to submit documentation of the variety under the provisions of this Law.

(2) Besides the submission of the application, the breeder is required to submit a proof of payment of administrative fees and special costs of proceedings. The Administration shall regulate the amount of special expenses by a special by-law.

(3) The Administration shall not refuse to grant a breeder's right or limit its duration on the ground that protection for the same variety has not been applied for, or it has been refused or has expired in any other State or intergovernmental organization.

(4) The Administration defines the content and method of keeping the Register of applications for the protection of the breeder's right.

(5) Besides the application under paragraph (1) of this Article, a certain quantity of reproductive material for the variety for which the breeder's right is requested is also submitted for obtaining the breeder's right.

(6) Documentation of reproductive material of the variety shall be considered confidential and will be treated as such secret information.

Article 13
(Terms and Conditions for the Entry in the Register of Applications)

(1) Upon the submission of application for granting the breeder's right, the Administration verifies whether the conditions for the entry in the Register of applications are fulfilled.

(2) If the application fulfills the prescribed conditions for granting the breeder's right, it shall be entered in the Register on the date of submission of application, and the applicant is issued a confirmation receipt.

(3) If the application does not meet the conditions prescribed by this Law, the Administration shall notify the applicant to correct deficiencies within a period of three months at the latest, starting from the date of submission notification to correct the identified deficiencies.

(4) If the applicant corrects the deficiencies in a given period, referred to in paragraph (3) of this Article, the application is entered in the Register on the date of receipt of the document with corrected deficiencies.

(5) If the applicant does not correct the deficiencies in the given period of time, the application is rejected with a formulated conclusion.

(6) If the expenses for public announcement of the application for granting breeder's right at the Administration are paid, the Application is published after the expiration of three months from the date of its filing and it becomes available to any interested party.

(7) Publication of the Application from paragraph (6) of this Article contains information about the date of filing the application, the name and the address of the applicant, and the name and characteristics of variety.

Article 14
(Right of Priority)

(1) Any breeder who has duly filed an Application for the protection of a variety in one of the members of UPOV (the "first application") shall, for the purpose of filing an application for the grant of a breeder's right for the same variety with the Administration enjoy a right of priority for a period of 12 months. This period shall be computed from the date of filing of the first application. The day of filing shall not be included in the latter period.

(2) The day and time of filing of the application referred to in Article 12 of this Law will be noted on the application and on the receipt about the confirmation of the application issued to the applicant.

(3) In order to benefit from the right of priority, the breeder shall, in the application filed with the Administration, claim the priority of the first application in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article.

The Administration shall require the breeder to furnish, within a period of three months from the filing date of the application, a copy of the documents which constitute the first application, certified to be a true copy by the authority with which that first application was filed, and samples or other evidence that the variety which is the subject matter of both applications is the same.

(4) The breeder shall be allowed a period of two (2) years after the expiration of the period from paragraph (1) of this Article or, where the first application for granting the breeder's right in the first country of filing the application is rejected or withdrawn, an appropriate time, after such rejection or withdrawal, in which to furnish, to the Administration any necessary information, document or material required for the purpose of the examination under Article 15 of this Law.

(5) Events occurring within the period provided for in paragraph (1) such as the filing of another application or the publication or use of the variety that is the subject of the first application, shall not constitute a ground for rejecting the subsequent application. Such events shall also not give rise to any third-party right.

Article 15
(Examination of the Application in Order to Derive the Evidence for Granting the Breeder's Right)

(1) Any decision to grant a breeder's right shall require an examination for compliance with the conditions under article 6 of this Law.

(2) In the course of the examination of conditions from paragraph (1) of this Article, the Commission may, be contracting an authorized/accredited laboratory, grow the variety or carry out other necessary tests, or take into account the results of trials carried out in Bosnia and Herzegovina or other states.

(3) The Commission may require the breeder to furnish all the necessary information, documents or material as specified in paragraph (1) and (2) of this Article.

(4) The Commission shall submit all its decisions to the Administration.

Article 16
(Decision on the Grant of the Breeder's Right)

(1) The Administration enters the Decision on the grant of the breeder's right in the Register of breeder's right.

(2) The date of entry in the register referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article is at the same time the date of passing the Decision on the grant of the breeder's right.

(3) The Administration shall pass a decision rejecting the grant of the breeder's right if in the process of testing it is established that the variety for which the application is filed does not meet the prescribed conditions. The deadline for passing the decision is determined by the provisions of the Law on Administrative Procedure.

(4) Decisions referred to in paragraph (2) and (3) of this Article shall be published in the official gazette of the Administration.

(5) Following the announcement on the grant of breeder's right in the official gazette of the Administration, the Administration issues the Certificate on granting of the breeder's right.

(6) A document about the obtained breeder's right can be attached to the Certificate on granting of the breeder's right at the request of the breeder.

(7) The design and content of the certificate referred to in paragraph (5) of this Article is defined by the Administration.

Article 17
(Obligations of the Holder of a Breeder's Right)

(1) The holder of a breeder's right pays a fee for maintenance of the breeder's right during the use of that right.

(2) The amount of fee is determined by the Administration in accordance with the Law on Administrative Fees (Official Gazette BiH, no. 14/99)

Article 18
(Provisional Protection)

(1) Provisional protection is provided to safeguard the interests of the breeder during the period between the publication of the application for the grant of a breeder's right and the grant of that right.

(2) Provisional protection shall have the effect that the holder of a breeder's right is entitled to an equitable remuneration from any person who, during the said period, has carried out acts which, once the right is granted, require the breeder's authorization as provided in Article 21 of this Law.

Article 19
(Committee for Appeals)

(1) Against the decision and the conclusions made in the process of obtaining breeder's rights can be appealed within three months from the date on which the decision or conclusions are received.

(2) An appeal shall be submitted to the Committee for Appeals (hereinafter the Committee) which is appointed by the Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina based on the proposal from the Administration (hereinafter: the Council of Ministers).

(3) The Committee consists of five members, representatives of the relevant entity's institutions and the Administration.

(4) Details about the work of the Committee shall be prescribed by the Book of Rules passed by the Committee.

Article 20
(The Costs of the Procedure for Granting the Breeder's Right)

(1) A fee shall be paid for the grant and the use of the breeder's right in accordance with the regulations in this Law and other regulations adopted on its basis.

(2) If the costs in the process of obtaining breeder's right are not paid, the acquisition for the grant of the breeder's right is rejected.

CHAPTER V – THE RIGHTS OF THE BREEDER

Article 21
(Scope of Breeder's Right)

(1) The following acts in respect of the propagating material of the protected variety shall require the authorization of the breeder:

- a) production or reproduction (multiplication);
- b) conditioning for the purpose of propagation;
- c) offering for sale;
- d) selling or other marketing;
- e) exporting;
- f) importing;
- g) stocking for any of the purposes mentioned in (a) to (f) in this paragraph.

(2) The breeder may make his authorization referred to in paragraph (1) subject to condition and limitations.

(3) The acts referred to in items a) to g) of paragraph (1) of this Article in respect of harvested material, including entire plants and parts of plants, obtained through the unauthorized use of propagating material of the protected variety shall require the authorization of the breeder, unless the breeder has had reasonable opportunity to exercise his right in relation to the said propagating material.

(4) The acts referred to in items a) to g) of paragraph (1) of this Article in respect of products made directly from harvested material of the protected variety falling within the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article through the unauthorized use of the said harvested material shall require the authorization of the breeder, unless the breeder has had reasonable opportunity to exercise his right in relation to the said harvested material.

(5) The provisions of paragraphs (1) to (4) of this Article shall also apply in relation to:

- a) varieties which are essentially derived from the protected variety, where the protected variety is not itself an essentially derived variety;
- b) varieties which are not clearly distinguishable in accordance with Article 8 of this Law from the protected variety and
- c) varieties whose production requires the repeated use of the protected variety.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (5) item a) of this Article, a variety shall be deemed to be essentially derived from another variety (the initial variety) when:

- a) it is predominantly derived from the initial variety, or from a variety that is itself predominantly derived from the initial variety, while retaining the expression of the essential characteristics that result from the genotype or combination of genotypes of the initial variety;
- b) it is clearly distinguishable from the initial variety;
- c) except for the differences which result from the act of derivation, it conforms to the initial variety in the expression of the essential characteristics that result from the genotype or combination of genotypes of the initial variety.

(7) Essentially derived variety may be obtained for example by the selection of a natural or induced mutant, or of a somaclonal variant, the selection of a variant individual from plants of the initial variety, backcrossing, or transformation by genetic engineering.

Article 22 (Exceptions to the Breeder's Right)

(1) The breeder's right shall not extend to:

- a) acts done privately and for non-commercial purposes;
- b) acts done for experimental purposes and;
- c) acts done for the purpose of breeding other varieties, and, except where the provisions of Article 21 paragraph (5) apply, acts referred to in Article 21 paragraphs (1) to (4) in respect of such other varieties.

(2) In relation to varieties included in a List of Agricultural Plants, the breeder's right shall not be infringed by a small farmers who, within reasonable limits and subject to the safeguarding of the legitimate interests of the breeder, use for propagating purposes, on their own holdings, the product of the harvest which they have obtained by planting, on their own holdings, the protected variety or a variety covered by Article 21 paragraph (5) items a) or b) of this Law (hereinafter "farm saved seed").

(3) When using farm saved seed the farmers are obliged to pay to the breeder reasonable remuneration for the use of farm saved seed which is significantly lower than the level of remuneration of the purchased seed. Small farmers are exempted from the obligation to pay remuneration for the use of the farm saved seed.

(4) The criteria for small farmers will be prescribed by the Administration.

(5) The breeder is entitled to request necessary information in writing from farmers in relation to the farm saved seed.

(6) The varieties of fruit, ornamentals, vegetables and forest plants are excluded from the exception under paragraph (2) of this Article.

Article 23 (Exhaustion of the Breeder's Right)

(1) The breeder's right shall not extend to acts concerning any material of the protected variety, or of a variety covered by the provisions of Article 21 paragraph (5) of this Law, which has been sold or otherwise marketed by the breeder or with his consent in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, or any material derived from the said material, unless such acts:

- a) involve further propagation of the variety in question, or
- b) involve an export of material of the variety, which enables the propagation of the variety, into a country which does not protect varieties of the plant genus or species to which the variety belongs, except where the exported material is for final consumption purposes.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) of this Article, "material" means, in relation to a variety:

- a) propagating material of any kind;
- b) harvested material, including entire plants and parts of plants, and
- c) any product made directly from the harvested material.

Article 24
(Restriction on the Exercise of the Breeder's Right)

(1) Except where expressly provided in this Law, the free exercise of a breeder's right shall not be restricted for reasons other than of public interest.

(2) When any such restriction has the effect of the Administration authorizing a third party to perform any act for which the breeder's authorization is required, the breeder shall receive equitable remuneration.

Article 25
(Measures Regulating Commerce)

The breeder's right is independent of any measure to regulate the production, certification and marketing of material of varieties or the importing or exporting of such material. In any case, such measures shall not affect the application of the provision of this Law.

Article 26
(Duration of the Breeder's Right)

The breeder's right shall be granted for a period of 20 years from the date of the grant of the breeder's right. For trees and vines, the said period shall be 25 years from the said date.

Article 27
(Termination of the Breeder's Right)

The breeder's right may be terminated:

- a) waiver of breeder's right holder;
- b) the expiration of the period for which the breeder's right is obtained;

CHAPTER VI – VARIETY DENOMINATION

Article 28
(Variety Denomination)

(1) The variety shall be designated by a denomination which will be its generic designation. Subject to paragraph (4) of this Article, no rights in the designation registered as the denomination of the variety shall hamper the free use of the denomination in connection with the variety, even after the expiration of the breeder's right.

(2) The denomination must enable the variety to be identified. It may not consist solely of figures except where this is an established practice for designating varieties. It must not be liable to mislead or to cause confusion concerning the characteristics, value or identity of the variety or the identity of the breeder. In particular, it must be different from every denomination which designates, in the territory of any member of UPOV, an existing variety of the same plant species or of a closely related species.

(3) The denomination of the variety shall be submitted by the breeder to the Administration. If it is found that the denomination does not satisfy the requirements of paragraph (2) of this Article, the Administration shall refuse to register it and shall require the breeder to propose another denomination within a three month period. The denomination shall be registered by the Administration at the same time as the breeder's right is granted.

(4) Prior rights of third persons shall not be affected. If, by reason of a prior right, the use of the denomination of a variety is forbidden to a person who, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (7) of this Article, is obliged to use it, the Administration shall require the breeder to submit another denomination for the variety.

(5) A variety must be submitted to all members of UPOV under the same denomination. The Administration shall register the denomination so submitted, unless it considers the denomination unsuitable. In the latter case, it shall require the breeder to submit another denomination.

(6) The Administration ensures that the responsible authorities of the members of UPOV are informed of matters concerning variety denominations, in particular the submission, registration and cancellation of denominations. The responsible authorities of the members of UPOV may address its observations on the registration of a denomination to the Administration.

(7) Any person who, offers for sale or markets in Bosnia and Herzegovina propagating material of a variety protected in Bosnia and Herzegovina is obliged to use the denomination of that variety, even after the expiration of the breeder's right in that variety, except where, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (4), prior rights prevent such use.

(8) When a variety is offered for sale or marketed, it is permitted to associate a trademark, trade name or other similar indication with a registered variety denomination. If such an indication is so associated, the denomination must be nevertheless easily recognizable.

CHAPTER VII – NULLITY AND CANCELLATION OF THE BREEDER'S RIGHT

Article 29 (Nullity of the Breeder's Right)

(1) The Administration shall declare the breeder's right null and void when it is established that:

- a) the conditions laid down in Articles 7 and 8 of this Law were not complied with at the time of filing the application, or where relevant, at the priority date under Articles 11 and 12 of this Law.
- b) where the grant of the breeder's right has been essentially based upon information and documents furnished by the breeder, the conditions laid down in Articles 9 and 10 of this Law were not complied with at the time referred to under item a) of this paragraph,
- c) that the breeder's right has been granted to a person who is not entitled to it, unless it is transferred to the person who is so entitled.

(2) No breeder's right shall be declared null and void for reasons other than those referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) The Administration publishes the decision under paragraph (1) of this Article in the official gazette of the Administration.

(4) If the applicant of the proposal to declare the decision null and void abandons its proposal, the Administration may proceed with the proceedings ex officio.

Article 30 (Cancellation of the Breeder's Right)

(1) The breeder's right shall be cancelled on the basis of a Decision on Cancellation of the Breeder's Right if it is established that:

- a) the conditions laid down in Articles 9 and 10 of this Law are no longer fulfilled.
- b) the breeder does not provide the Administration within the period of sixty (60) days:

1) the information, documents or material deemed necessary for verifying the compliance under Articles 9 and 10 of this Law,

2) the breeder fails to pay such fees as may be payable to keep his right in force, and

3) the breeder does not propose, where the denomination of the variety is cancelled by the Administration after the grant of the right, another suitable denomination.

(2) No breeder's right shall be cancelled for reasons other than those referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) The Administration shall publish the decision under paragraph (1) of this Article in the official gazette of the Administration.

CHAPTER VIII – TRANSFER AND CEDING THE BREEDER'S RIGHT

Article 31 (Transfer of Breeder's Right)

(1) The holder of breeder's right can fully or partially transfer that right by a contract to another person.

(2) The provisions under paragraph (1) of this Article shall also apply to the applicant.

(3) Transfer of the rights referred to in paragraph (1) and (2) of this Article is implemented by a contract and entered in the Register of Transferred Breeder's Right.

(4) A contract which is not entered in the Register of Transferred Breeder's Right does not affect legally the third parties.

(5) A contract not made in writing on one of the official languages in Bosnia and Herzegovina and in a single type of script shall not be entered in the Register of Transferred Breeder's Right.

(6) The Administration prescribes the method and content of keeping the Register of Transferred Breeder's Right.

Article 32 (Contractual Licenses)

(1) Licensing the breeder's right is carried out by a license agreement, in accordance with this Law and other regulations.

(2) The license agreement must be in writing.

(3) The agreement referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article may be concluded also by the applicant.

(4) If several persons applied for the breeder's right or if this right is obtained by more persons, the license agreement requires the consent of all persons.

(5) License agreement shall be entered in the Register of the Contractual Licenses..

(6) The agreement which is not entered in the Register of the Contractual Licenses.
will not have effects for the third parties.

(7) The agreement which is not made in writing on one of the official languages in Bosnia and Herzegovina and in a single type of script shall not be entered in the Register of Contractual Licenses.

(8) The Administration prescribes the method and content of keeping the Register of Contractual Licenses.

Article 33 (License Agreement)

License Agreement includes the following information:

- a) the duration of the license,
- b) the scope and content of the license,
- c) the amount of compensation for licensing the breeder's right.

Article 34
(Compulsory License)

- (1) The Administration may, at the request of an interested party, grant a compulsory license when the use of the breeder's right is in the public interest.
- (2) A person referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article may obtain the compulsory license only if he can prove that he disposes of reproductive material, professional, production-technical and financial conditions for the full use of the breeder's right.
- (3) The holder of the compulsory license has the obligation to pay compensation to the holder of the breeder's right, which shall be agreed upon by both sides, and if the agreement is not reached, the amount of equitable remuneration and method of payment is determined by the responsible court.
- (4) The compulsory license is granted for a period of three (3) years with the possibility of extension when it is determined that there are conditions for its renewal.
- (5) The application for obtaining the compulsory license may not be filed before the expiration of five (5) years from the day the breeder's right was obtained.

CHAPTER IX- REPRESENTATION

Article 35
(Persons Authorised to Represent)

- (1) Legal and natural persons dealing with representation in the process of obtaining the breeder's right must be registered in the Register of Representatives.
- (2) Administration regulates the manner and content of keeping record in the Register of Representatives.
- (3) Method and procedure as well as the basics that must be met by legal and natural persons referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article are defined by the Administration.

CHAPTER X - CIVIL PROTECTION

Article 36
(Claims)

- (1) In case of violation of the breeder's right, the prosecutor can request by a claim:
- a) to identify the violation of the right;
 - b) to ban the further carrying out of committed violation and of future similar violations by the cessation or the abstention from actions that violate that right;
 - c) to remove the situation which resulted from the violation of the right;
 - d) to withdraw infringing goods form the market while respecting the interests of third conscientious parties;
 - e) to completely remove the objects of the violation of economic flows;
 - f) to destroy the objects by which the violation of the right was carried out;
 - g) to destroy the resources which are exclusively or mainly intended to or used for committing violations and which are owned by the offender;
 - h) to give the objects of the violation over to the right holder with compensations of the production costs;
 - i) to compensate for property damage and reasonable costs of the proceeding;
 - j) to make public the verdict at the expense of defendant.
- (2) In deciding on the claims under paragraph (1) items. c) d) e), f), g) and h) of this Article, the court must take into account all the circumstances of the case, especially in proportion to the gravity of the committed violation and the claim, as well as the interest of the authorized person to ensure the effective protection of the right.

(3) In the proceeding against the persons whose services were used for the violation of rights, and the existence of that violation has already been legally established in the procedure towards the third party, it is assumed that there is a violation of rights.

(4) The proceeding based on the claim under paragraph (1) of this Article should be expeditious.

Article 37
(Violation of the Breeder's Right)

Each unauthorized act covered by Article 21 of this Law is considered a violation of the breeder's right.

Article 38
(Damage Compensation)

(1) General rules on damage compensation and liability for damage shall apply in case of violation of this Law, unless otherwise defined by this Law.

(2) A person who violates the breeder's right shall pay the right holder a compensation to the extent that is determined by the general rules on damage compensation, or to the extent appropriate to contractual or usual compensation for the legal use of the breeder's right.

Article 39
(Penal Provisions)

(1) If a violation of the breeder's right is done on purpose or in extreme negligence, the holder of the right may seek compensation from the person who violated the right up to a triple amount of the amount agreed, and if the amount is not agreed, up to a triple amount of the respective usual license fees which the holder would receive for the use of the breeder's right.

(2) In deciding on the Application for payment of penalty the court shall take into account all the circumstances of the case, and in particular the scope of the damage incurred, the degree of the violation, the agreed amount or the usual license fee and preventive penalty goal.

(3) If the incurred damage is greater than the penalty under paragraph (1) of this Article, the right holder is authorized to require the difference to the amount of full compensation of damage.

Article 40
(Active Legitimisation for Lawsuit)

A lawsuit due to violation of the breeder's right may be filed by the holder of the breeder's right and the holder of the exclusive license.

Article 41
(Deadline for Filing a Lawsuit)

A lawsuit due to violation of the breeder's right may be filed within three years from the date when the plaintiff learned of the violation and of the offender, and no later than five years from the date when the violation was first made.

Article 42
(Temporary Measures)

(1) The court shall appoint a temporary measure to ensure the claim under the provisions of this Law, if the proponent ensures:

- a) that he is the right holder under this Law and
- b) that his right has been violated or that there is a real threat of the violation of the right;

(2) The right holder must also ensure one of the following assumptions:

- a) the risk that the implementation of the claim will be prevented or substantially hindered;
- b) that the temporary measure is needed to prevent potential damage which shall be difficult to repair later, or
- c) that the presumed offender would not, by passing the temporary measure which would later in the process prove unjustified, suffer greater negative consequences than those which would affect the right holder without the adoption of such temporary measure.

(3) The right holder who proposes the adoption of the temporary measure without prior notification and hearing of the other side shall, except for the conditions referred to in paragraph (1) and (2) of this Article, make it likely that any delay in the adoption of the temporary measure would cause that the right holder suffers the damage that would be difficult to repair.

(4) In case of adoption of the temporary measure under the provisions of paragraph (3) of this Article, the court will submit the Decision about the temporary measure to the opposite side immediately after its implementation.

(5) The right holder does not need to prove the existence of potential threat that the implementation of the claim will be prevented or substantially hindered if he ensures that the proposed temporary measure will supposedly cause only minor damage to the offender.

(6) It is assumed that there is a threat if the claims should be realised abroad.

(7) The court may order for the purpose of ensuring the claim, under paragraph (1) of this Article, any temporary measure which would provide the guarantee, in particular:

- a) that the acts which violate the right under this Law are forbidden to the assumed offender;
- b) to take away, remove from circulation and store objects of violation and instruments of violation which are exclusively or mainly intended that is they are used to commit violations.

(8) If the measure is determined prior to filing the lawsuit, the court shall in the decision also specify the deadline within which the proponent must file the lawsuit for the purpose of justifying that measure.

(9) The deadline referred to in paragraph (8) of this Article shall not be longer than 20 working days that is 31 calendar days from the day the decision was submitted to the proponent, depending on which deadline expires later.

(10) The court must decide on the objection against the Decision on the temporary measure within 30 days from the day the answer to the complaint is filed, that is from the expiration of deadline for filing such answer.

(11) The proceeding in relation to the temporary measure is considered urgent.

Article 43 (Securing the Evidence)

(1) The Court shall render a Decision on securing the evidence if the proponent provides the court with a reasonable proof that:

- a) that he is the right holder under this Law and
- b) that his right has been violated or that there is a real threat of the violation of the right;
- c) that the evidence about that violation will be destroyed, or that later they will not be available for the presentation.

(2) The right holder, who seeks that the Decision is passed to secure the evidence without prior notification and hearing of the other side, shall make it likely, except the conditions referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, that there is the existence of a threat that the evidence about violation, due to the action of the offender, will be destroyed, or that later the evidence will not be available for the presentation.

(3) In case the decision on securing the evidence under the provisions of paragraph (2) of this Article, the court will submit the Decision on Securing the Evidence to the opposite side immediately after the presentation of evidence.

(4) The court my by the decision under paragraph (1) of this Article determine to present any evidence, and in particular:

- a) investigation of the rooms, business documents, inventory, database, computer memory units, or other things;
- b) withdrawal of samples of the objects of violation;
- c) review and delivery of documents;
- d) identifying and hearing of expert witnesses;
- e) hearing of witnesses.

(5) Securing the evidence may be requested also after the legally completed proceeding, if necessary to initiate the proceeding to extraordinary legal remedies, or during such proceeding.

(6) In the process of securing the evidence, according to the provisions of this Article, use the appropriate provisions of the law which regulates the execution and security, and which are related to the temporary measures, unless otherwise provided by this Law.

(7) The proceeding on securing the evidence is considered urgent.

(8) If it is shown later that the proposal for securing the evidence is unjustified, or if the right holder does not justify that proposal, the opposing party has the right to request:

- a) return the seized items;
- b) ban the use of collected information;
- c) compensation of damage.

(9) The court must, in the process of securing the evidence, and according to the provisions of this Article, ensure the protection of confidential data and make sure that the court proceeding is not misused for a specific purpose to obtain confidential information of the opposing party.

Article 44 (Duty of Notification)

(1) The Court may in the course of the lawsuit, due to violation of the right under this Law, on the basis of a justified claim by one of the parties, order the offender to submit the data on the source and distribution channels of goods or services which violate the right of this Law.

(2) The Court may order that the information referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article be delivered to the court also by the persons who, to the extent of commercial activities:

- a) have the goods which are suspected to violate the right under this Law, or
- b) use the services that are suspected to violate the right under this Law, or
- c) provide services which are suspected to violate the right under this Law.

(3) It is believed that some action is taken in the scope of commercial activities, if undertaken for the provision of direct or indirect economic benefit.

(4) The term commercial activity does not involve actions of conscientious end consumers.

(5) The Court may order that the information referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article shall be delivered to the court also by the person who is one of the persons mentioned in paragraph (2) of this Article, indicated as involved in the production, development and distribution of goods or providing services for which it is suspected that they violate the right of this Law.

(6) Information required under paragraph (1) of this Article may in particular include:

- a) name, address, or firm and seat of the producer, developer, distributor, supplier and other previous owners of the goods, that is of service providers, as well as intended wholesale and retail salesmen;
- b) data on the quantities produced, developed, delivered, received or ordered goods or services, as well as on prices achieved for the relevant goods and services.

Article 45 (Presentation of Evidence)

(1) If the court decides to present the proposed evidence which is in the possession of the opposite side, this side is obliged to submit to the court the existing evidence which stays at its disposal.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this Article applies to the banking, financial and business documentation, which is under control of the opposite side, in case of a violation which reaches the scope of commercial activity.

(3) Relevant provisions of the Law which governs civil procedure are applied in the process of presentation of evidence, unless otherwise provided in this Law.

(4) After the presentation of evidence, and in accordance with paragraph (1) of this Article, the court shall ensure the protection of confidential data and make sure that the court proceeding is not misused for a specific purpose to obtain confidential information of the opposing party.

Article 46
(The Guarantee Instrument for Opposing Side)

At the request of the person against whom a proceeding is initiated to determine a temporary measure or provide the evidence, the court may determine the appropriate amount of money as a guarantee instrument in case of a groundless claim, at the expense of the applicant.

Article 47
(Lawsuit to Deny the Granted Breeder's Right)

- (1) If a person who is not eligible for the breeder's right is granted this right, the person who is eligible for the breeder's right may file a lawsuit to request that the court pronounce him as the holder of the breeder's right.
- (2) If the court adopts the claim referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, it requires that the Administration within 30 days of the verdict enters the new holder of the right into the Register of the Breeder's Right.
- (3) If a third person obtains the breeder's right from the previous holder of the breeder's right, that right is valid also for the new right holder, if the person's name was entered in the appropriate register or properly registered for the entry into the register prior to the note about the court proceeding.
- (4) The lawsuit under paragraph (1) of this Article may be filed as long as the process of obtaining of the breeder's right is ongoing and while that right is valid.

Article 48
(Lawsuit for the Recognition of the Breeder's Properties)

- (1) The breeder may request by filing a lawsuit that his name be mentioned in appropriate registries and public documents relating to the grant of the breeder's right.
