GENEVA

COUNCIL

Thirty-First Ordinary Session
Geneva, October 29, 1997

APPOINTMENT OF THE NEW SECRETARY-GENERAL

Proposal of the Consultative Committee

The Consultative Committee recommends to the Council the following decision:

“The Council

notes with appreciation that the new Secretary-General does not wish to receive an indemnity from UPOV, and decides that the program and budget should be so amended that the resulting saving be used for financing activities of interest particularly to developing countries.”
