CAJ/XIII/ 6 Add. 2

ORIGINAL: French

DATE: March 30, 1984

INTERNATIONAL UNION FOR THE PROTECTION OF NEW VARIETIES OF PLANTS

GENEVA

ADMINISTRATIVE AND LEGAL COMMITTEE

Thirteenth Session
Geneva, April 4 and 5, 1984

FEES TO BE PAID IN RELATION TO COOPERATION IN EXAMINATION

Document prepared by the Office of the Union

The Office of the Union has received from the delegations from South Africa and the Netherlands the following replies to the questions reproduced in paragraph 1 of document CAJ/XIII/6 after completion of the latter:

i) South Africa.- "Grants [have been made on the basis of] Chrysanthemum examination results from the United Kingdom authorities. Up to now we have paid the examination fees applied by the United Kingdom as in direct applications to them. We would willingly abide by any UPOV decision, whether this was 350 Swiss francs or the fee requested by the authority concerned."

ii) Pays-Bas.- "The Dutch Board for Plant Breeders' Rights does not base its decisions on results of examinations conducted by other States if no agreement for cooperation has been concluded with them. It is understood that the taking over of results from States with which an agreement has been concluded and for crops which are not explicitly mentioned in the agreement is within the framework of that agreement."
