

Antonio Villarroel

Antonio Villarroel is the Secretary General of ANOVE (“Spanish National Association of Plant Breeders”) and since 1996 is the General Manager and Lawyer of “GESLIVE”, a subsidiary of ANOVE that deals with the enforcement and management of plant breeders’ rights and other intellectual property rights on plant materials (licenses, royalty collection, legal proceedings).

Since 2006, he is also a lecturer at the “Master on Intellectual Property, Competition and New Technologies” hold by University Rey Juan Carlos of Madrid.

Member of the Intellectual Property Committee of ISF (International Seed Federation) and the Board of Directors of CIOFORA (International Community of Breeders of Asexually Reproduced Ornamental and Fruit Varieties).

Previous professional experiences include being a Consultant in AGRAR Consulting, and a lawyer in Estudio Jurídico Serrano and Sacristan Dea & Associates.

Mr. Villarroel has a Law Degree from Universidad Complutense of Madrid. He has published several articles and given lectures on plant breeders’ rights.