

Pedro Tent Alonso

Mr. Tent (LLM –Corporate and Commercial Law– by the London School of Economics and Political Science; Law Degree –Honors– by the Universitat de València) is a partner in the Litigation and Arbitration practice of J&A Garrigues, S.L.P. and manager of the IP Law Department in the Levante offices of the firm.

Devoted to commercial litigation, he acts for clients in all kinds of judicial proceedings relating to contract law, corporate law and IP law. He has acquired extensive experience in the field of plant variety legal protection as well as in the judicial defense of interests related thereto. In this particular discipline, he performed as leading lawyer in the professional team that received the Managing IP EMEA Award for the Impact Case in Spain in 2020.

He has specialized in private international law, acting in cross-border litigation and partaking in international arbitration proceedings.

He is an associate lecturer at Universitat de València, where he teaches “International Commercial Law”. He is also a guest lecturer of the Magister Lvcentinvm (Universidad de Alicante), where he teaches “EU legal system on plant variety protection” and “General aspects of inventions, forms of protection and developments of basics concepts in Europe”.

He is a member of the Valencia Bar Association and appointed arbitrator by the Arbitral Tribunal of the Valencia Bar Association.