

Hayat ZAHER

Ms. Hayat Zaher graduated as an engineer from the IAV Hassan II Rabat Morocco in 1992. In 2015, she had a Phd in Biochemistry and plant Biotechnology at the University Cadi Ayyad, Semlalia, Marrakesh.

From 1993 to 2005, Mrs. Hayat Zaher worked as a researcher on date palm Program at INRA Marrakech. Since 2005 she worked as a researcher in INRA, UR Plant breeding and quality in the laboratory of olive breeding. Her research activities concern the olive genetic improvement, Identification, characterization, collection, conservation and use of genetic resources of olive in Morocco and Organoleptic characterization of virgin olive oils.

Since 2008, she became a member of the Regional taste panel of olive oil in the region of Marrakech- Safi