

GRACE AMA ISSAHAQUE
REGISTRAR-GENERAL OF GHANA

Mrs. Grace Ama Issahaque is a product of the Ghana School of Law and the University of Ghana. She holds an LLM in Intellectual Property Law from Turin University (Italy), an LLM in Computer and Communication Law from the Queen Mary University of London and a Post-Graduate Diploma in International Law, Human Rights, and Development from the Institute of Social Studies the Hague.

She has represented Ghana in many international fora and served in many capacities at the global level, as Chairman of the Madrid Protocol Union Assembly, Chairman of the Paris Union Executive Committee, Chair of the Hague Union Assembly, Vice-Chair of the Patent Corporation Treaty, and currently the Vice-Chair of the Lisbon Union Assembly of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO). At the National level she has served as a Board member on the Food and Drugs Authority, National Medicine List Committee, University of Ghana Office of Research and Development among many others. She is a member of the Ghana Bar Association, the Federation of International Women Lawyers (FIDA) Ghana and the American Society of International Law (ASIL).

As a Chief State Attorney, she has been appointed as the Registrar-General of Ghana and oversees Industrial Property Rights, Administration of Estates and Registration of Marriages. She has deep knowledge and experience in intellectual property law, company law, international law, computer and communication law and international trade law. She advises government and the general public on issues on international law, treaties and trade.