OBSERVATIONS DE LA DELEGATION DE
L'AFRIQUE DU SUDDocument préparé par le Bureau de l'Union

Par lettres en date du 15 avril 1981, M. J.F. van Wyk, Directeur de la Division du contrôle des semences et plants du Département de l'agriculture et des pêches de l'Afrique du Sud, a présenté des observations sur les documents CAJ/VII/4 et CAJ/VII/6 :

i) S'agissant du document CAJ/VII/4 (libre accès aux essais donné aux obtenteurs par les services d'examen qui agissent pour le compte d'autres Etats), il a cité les dispositions de la législation nationale qui se rapportent à la fourniture de renseignements. La lettre se rapportant à ce document est reproduite, dans la langue originale, à l'annexe du présent document.

ii) S'agissant du document CAJ/VII/6 (propositions d'amendement des Principes directeurs pour les dénominations variétales), il s'est déclaré d'accord sur les propositions d'amendement relatives aux articles 1 à 7. En ce qui concerne l'article 10, il reste en faveur de sa suppression. Toutefois, si pour une quelconque raison qui existe dans d'autres Etats membres et qui lui est inconnue, on estime que cet article devrait être maintenu, il préférerait qu'il soit modifié sur la base de l'article 48 du Code international de nomenclature des plantes cultivées de 1980.
